

Many thanks to all the folks who made the Holy Week services and events such a wonderful experience. From music to decorations, from fellowship meals and Easter crafts and egg hunts, from setting up for sunrise and cleaning up after it was all over- it took a lot of volunteers to make a truly rich and rewarding week of celebration.

It was good to see families gathering for Easter. I got to meet some new folks, talk to some folks I don't always get to see, and even greet some prospective members who expressed how much they enjoyed being here. Thank you for making people feel welcome!

Of course, Easter is more than a day. It is also a season that stretches to Pentecost Sunday. Really, every Sunday is a celebration of the good news of Jesus' resurrection, so I hope you will join us with the same sense of expectancy and commitment in the days ahead.

This is also a season of transition- purposeful transition, as we move forward in a time of self-study in preparation for the search for our next pastor. Important work is being done, work that calls for the best from every one of us. Please be prayerful. Please be positive. Please be present and participatory.

This Sunday is our quarterly church conference- no real big decisions to make, but important reports and information to be shared. Many good things are happening here! This is also another one of those opportunities for good food and fellowship. I have discovered that good food and fellowship is just one of the things FBC is good at!

May 4th brings our second Congregational Conversation. I was amazed at the great turnout for the first one and am hoping for the same kind of response as we turn our focus from the "past" to "the present" here at FBC. I remember this session from the time I served Shelby FBC. The experience was fun, very informative and very insightful. Bill Wilson will be back to conduct the conversation and to preach in the morning worship service, so it will be a good day!

Hope to see you!

CONGREGATIONAL CONVERSATION #2

May 4 - 10:30 AM, Immediately Following Worship

We are excited to welcome Dr. Bill Wilson with the Center for Healthy Churches to preach in the morning worship service next Sunday, May 4th and then to lead us in our Second Congregational Conversation. We had a great turnout for the first gathering and a wonderful spirit prevailed as we focused on the church's past. We hope you will join us on May 4th as we get feedback from that first session and as we turn our attention this time to the church's present. These events are pivotal for the success of our transitional journey and every voice is needed.
